

The Defense of the Defenseless

Written by Ray Dickinson
For the church of Philadelphia on May 2, 2022

Dear brethren,

On April 29, we received an interesting dream from Brother Aquiles, which we have been pondering on for a few days. Today (May 2, 2022), we found out about something that makes its meaning much clearer. Here is the dream:

Detention room

Dream of Aquiles

April 29, 2022

Another person and I are in a small detention room which has only the door opening. I see a man arrive who looks like a policeman or guard who is carrying a truncheon over a meter long and I sense that we are going to be punished for not obeying what they expect of persons. When he raises the club, I don't remember if by raising my arms I am opposing him by grabbing the club or if I am just raising my arms as a sign of being helpless; I remember telling him that the act of beating me is not justified as I am a man over 60 years old and that I should just follow him and give my statement. But apparently their idea is to teach others like us a lesson so that they will not follow in our footsteps. So, in view of the danger with my arms up I raise my head and ask God for His protection. A quick scene passes before my eyes, and I see as if a strong wind and a lot of fog and then I see on the ground a skull that must be a policeman or guard and a very dirty floor. I know that soon we are going to have more serious problems when those who sent the guard find out and I don't know what they can do against us afterwards.

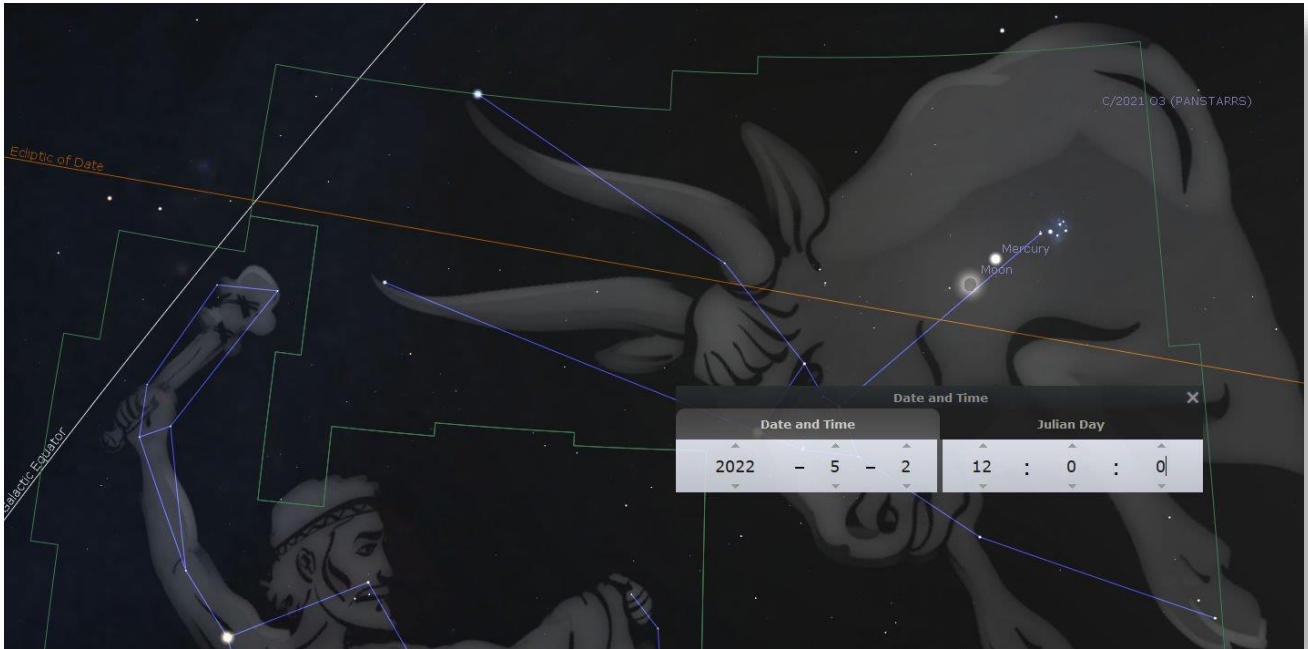

Regarding the heavenly setting, we have a strong hint from the symbolism of the policeman with the club that we should be looking in the region of Orion, who also has a club:

However, the policeman in the dream enters a room where Aquiles is, but Orion can't move. Therefore, the idea must be that we look in this region of the sky for the room where two other actors are present (represented by Aquiles and the other person in the room before the policeman arrives), but the policeman "enters" in a different way.

There should be a moment when two bodies come together in one heavenly "room" or constellation near Orion. The ecliptic constellation connected to Orion is Taurus, where Mercury is.

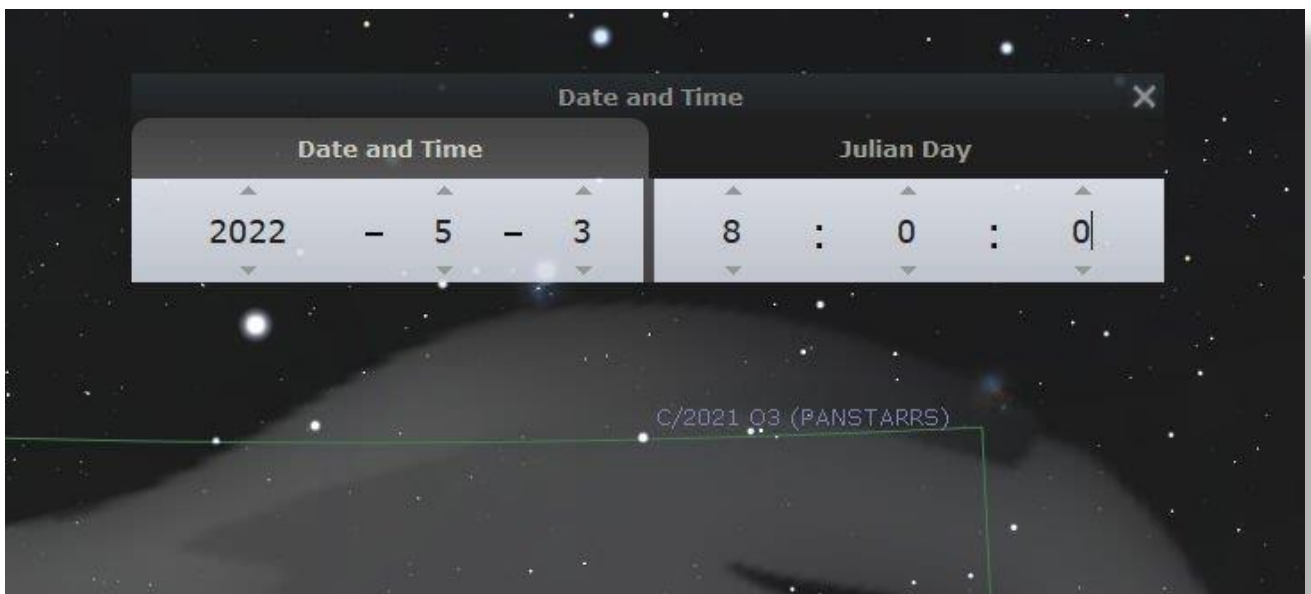

Furthermore, there is a familiar dividing line within Taurus, known as the Golden Gate of the Ecliptic—and this is represented by the open space for a door in the room. This would point to a time after noon (Paraguay) on May 2 as when the policeman should enter the room. In the following picture, you can see the other person (Mercury) and Aquiles (the moon) when they are both in the same room. This is the time marker that the dream is pointing to.

The moon represents Aquiles with his hands up like the tapering points of the crescent moon that it is. It is about those who trust God for His deliverance.

As the saints left the cities and villages, they were pursued by the wicked, who sought to slay them. But the swords that were raised to kill God’s people broke and fell as powerless as a straw. Angels of God shielded the saints. As they cried day and night for deliverance, their cry came up before the Lord. { EW 284.2 }

You may notice that the comet C/2021 O3 (PanSTARRS) is also in Taurus, but it does not represent a person. In keeping with our understanding of the symbolism, the comet with its fuzzy coma represents a cloud, or in this case, the fog that Aquiles sees. After the fog passes, he sees the skull of the policeman and a now dirty environment. This gives us a time frame for the strong wind (representing an act of war), because PanSTARRS (the fog) leaves the room in the morning of May 3:

We had assumed that the policeman would represent the US, being the "global police", but precisely at the time indicated (after 12:00 on May 2, 2022), while we were talking at lunch today, the policeman "entered" the room! We learned something that made it clear who the policeman apparently is, as Brother Robert already shared: Nicolai Patrushev, "a hardline former federal police chief." The dream was pointing to that moment when we would understand who the policeman really was in the dream.

Note that Nicolai Patrushev is the secretary of Russia's Security Council and issues military guidance directly to Putin, but in former days, he was a Soviet KGB spy. This explains why Aquiles in the dream seems to expect to be interrogated, as the KGB were known for their tortuous interrogations. And the fact that the interrogation is not conducted in the dream is a strong indication that there will not be, at this time of history, the giving of testimony before kings, etc. Probation is closed and no one is changing their views on account of any testimony. Rather, the policeman wants to harm him immediately, when the Lord intervenes for his protection.

In the dream, when Aquiles prays for God's protection there is a blast that kills the policeman. If the policeman is Patrushev, this would suggest a major bombing of Russia (such as with nuclear weapons that "dirty" the environment), which only seems likely if the Russians first bomb another country. Also in the news today were articles that stated expert opinions that, according to international law, the US' ongoing training of Ukrainian soldiers at US bases in Germany itself constitutes involvement in the war (contrary to the more publicized sending of heavy artillery). One German article concluded with a stark realization:

The US Department of Defense announced on Friday that the US military is already training Ukrainian soldiers on weapons systems at US bases in Germany. The Bundeswehr and the Netherlands are also participating in this training.

The Left Party criticized this in the Bundestag as Germany's entry into the Ukraine war. "The Ampel coalition and the Union have made Germany an active war party with their Bundestag decision to supply heavy weapons to Ukraine and also to train Ukrainian soldiers 'in Germany or on NATO territory'," Žaklin Nastić, Left Party chairwoman in the Defense Committee, told the RND. The German government is exposing the whole of Europe to a "completely uncontrollable danger", which in the worst case could end in a nuclear war. [translated]

This gives a reason for Russia—perhaps while under the rule of Patrushev—to strike the US, for example, since they are the ones doing the training. The nuclear apocalypse is not something that is modeled to happen all at once, but first with a single nuclear strike, which is returned, and later escalates. The FIRST return strike on Russia is what is depicted in the dream that leaves the skull and a very dirty environment.

A video shows a simulation of how that could play out...

Video: PLAN A

I know that soon we are going to have more serious problems when those who sent the guard find out and I don't know what they can do against us afterwards.

In other words, the full nuclear conflagration ("more serious problems") would follow in an escalatory manner soon after the first strikes. This would be the window of opportunity for Aquiles, representing God's people praying day and night for deliverance, to escape through the open door in the room...

*I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.
(Revelation 3:8)*

As is typically the case, however, there is no encouraging word in the dream about whether he actually escapes. But this would be the expectation according to our understanding! Let us stay awake to recognize how things continue to develop, to better understand the application of the dreams and prophecies for this time.